Notice: Final Year Project Group Formation counselling in online [Google Meet]

An online counselling meeting will be held on 02.08.2020 at 12:00 PM to form final year project groups. All the final year students of the EE Department are invited to present in the meeting.

Please note that main 18 (Eighteen) project groups are already formed as per rules of the department and allotted there 36 students containing 02 students in each group based on their Rank. Therefore, rest students from the Rank 37 will be allotted to the main groups through the online counselling. If any student remains absent in the meeting he/she will be allotted in the main group as per rule of the department.

Hope for the best.

Thanks
